Republic of Kosova declares independence.

February 17th 2008, at 15:49 CET

We are honored and humbled that it is our generation that lives to see this day, and we are aware and ready to take up the path that begins from here. Our future is with Europe.

Thank you from the bottom of our hearts, for standing by us in the worst of times.

In memory of those that gave and lost their lives, loved ones, and those that are still missing.

May peace and light prevail.

Republic of Kosova is about 4 years and a half old.

I salute your success about recognition. I've usually looked on your web-site. I wish you every luck because I swear that it'll be finished this drama of collapse SFRJ and the life go in normal ways. I've usually tried to ensure other peoples that accept reality. People, even here, from time to time slowly change the opinion about Kosovo independence and they see reality. If the number of the recognition countries increase, the people's opinion in Serbia change in good way. I think that we will a good neighbors one day!
